Scary God

But he stands alone and who can dissuade him? What he desires, that he does. For he will complete what he appoints for me; and many such things are in his mind. Therefore I am terrified at his presence; when I consider, I am in dread of him. God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me
Job 23:13-16

Scary God Of wrath and vengeance Of battles and genocide Not always an easy God to believe

Scary God Of purity requirements and exile Of the prophets and the marginalised Not always an easy God to love

Scary God Of earthquakes and judgement of tables overturned and leaving family behind Not always an easy God to hear

Scary God Of narrow paths and thorns in sides, of crosses and life denied Not always an easy God to serve

And yet God. Of untameable holiness Of true righteousness You are who you are We fear you and we praise you.

Easter Season

Lord God of life, we thank you for blessings you have poured out on each of us. We thank you for the gift in each day we see, the grace of every breath we draw, the opportunity in every moment we live. Thank you for creating us to live in this time and this space, and show us how to glorify you here and now.

During this Easter season, we reflect upon the fate of millions in our world who share the days in which we live on this earth.

We remember over a billion people living on less than one US Dollar a day; We remember two billion who have no access to proper sanitation We remember one hundred million children do not go to school; We remember ten million children die before the age of 5 from preventable disease.

God of the poor and powerless, we stand before you as citizens of a wealthy and powerful nation, and ask that you would show us how to glorify you here.

We pray for justice and hope and grace, and ask that you would enable us to be agents of justice and hope in the time and the place where you have called us to represent you. By your grace, make us a holy people, attentive to you, that we may live the truth as well as speak the truth.
